Renew the Promise of the real American West...

so that future generations can discover and experience the story, too!

The story of the American West is a rich and colorful tapestry that stirs souls even today. For years to come, your support develops interpretive programs, creates exhibits, expands our research, and even feeds our raptors!

Our namesake, William F. “Buffalo Bill” Cody, always envisioned what could be. Nothing in the present, including the Center that now bears his name, would have been far from his imagination—even the World Wide Web. Today the Buffalo Bill Center of the West brings the West directly to you through our website. Check it out today, and discover:

- Advance ticket sales
- Trip planning tips, hours, and admission
- Group sales
- Calendar of events
- Programs and activities
- Five museums and research library
- Online exhibitions, collections, and shopping
- Online print sales
- And more!

BUFFALO BILL CENTER OF THE WEST

LONG LIVE THE WILD WEST!

720 Sheridan Avenue, Cody WY | 307-587-4771 | Group tours: 307-578-4114 | centerofthewest.org

Prospector. Bullwhacker. Trapper. Pony Express rider. Buffalo hunter. Army scout. Guide. Producer. Is it any wonder it takes a whole museum to tell the story of the legendary showman William F. “Buffalo Bill” Cody? Learn all about Cody, his Wild West show, and the West he loved in the Buffalo Bill Museum.

Firearms manufacturing—factory workers, business competition, production innovations—had as much to do with the culture of the West as did the firearm itself. Still, a gun was a gun and provided security to the sure shot, protection for his family, and dinner for his table. Get the story in the Cody Firearms Museum.

Explore interactive trails that replicate sights, sounds, and, yes, even the smells of the Greater Yellowstone region. Featuring specimens of grizzly bears, wolves, bighorn rams, moose, elk, and other wildlife, the Draper Natural History Museum is a must for the Yellowstone explorer.

With their tools of the trade—sketch pads, canvases and paper, or clay to sculpt—artists chronicle the marvelous sights of the American West. Discover some of the most stunning, priceless masterworks of the American West in the Whitney Western Art Museum.

Share the life stories of the Northern Plains Indian peoples in the Plains Indian Museum through Native voices, music, and unique collections. Carefully passed from one generation to the next, these stories tell about family, the land, beauty, and celebration from the past to the present.

It’s been said that a library is “the delivery room for the birth of ideas—a place where history comes to life.” Meet up with history in the McCracken Research Library, where original historic documents, one-of-a-kind photographs, and a collection of all things western await scholars, researchers, and western enthusiast alike.

The Eatery, Coffee Bar, The Center Store

Take a break from the galleries with a light snack, sandwich, salad, or the day’s lunch special, in the Eatery or on the deck. Enjoy gourmet coffee or Italian soda at the Coffee Bar. Purchase prints of your favorite painting, a CD or DVD, your favorite western author’s latest book, or one-of-a-kind jewelry in the Center Store and at our downtown location.
