

2022 Kurt Swanson Bucholz Arsenals of History

The Cody Firearms Museum is pleased to host this special event. It features speakers from around the world and will focus on firearms history, museum practice, and ongoing research within the field. Plan to attend Oct. 6–8 at the Cody Firearms Museum in Cody, Wyoming. DETAILS BELOW.

» THURSDAY, OCT. 6

8:30 a.m.: Extracting the Detail & Showcasing the Hidden. By Dr. Rachel Bolton-King, Associate Professor, Staffordshire University.

9:45 a.m.: The Cartier-Roberval Site: Renaissance Strategy in North America, with guns. By Khan Rooney, Historical Arms curator, Intendant of the Chateau Ramezay.

1:15 p.m.: Verifying the Story: Untangling a Confusing Family History. By Dave Kennedy, Curator of Collections, U.S. Marshals Museum.

2:30 p.m.: "Vinvit Qui Patitur": The Life of an American Armsmaker – Colonel Samuel Colt. By Bert Barnett, Retired National Park Ranger.

3:45 p.m.: Winchester Contributions to Experimental Military SALW During the Cold War. By Nic Jenzen-Jones, Director, Armament Research Services.

» FRIDAY, OCT. 7

8:30 a.m.: Arming Virginia: Military Firearms in the Colonial Capital. By Erik Goldstein, Senior Curator of Mechanical Arts & Numismatics, The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation.

9:45 a.m.: Finding R.H. Weakley. By Susan Ashman, Historic Weapons Supervisor, Springfield Armory National Historic Site.

11 a.m.: Exhibiting the Marine Raiders at the National Museum of the Marine Corps. By Kater Miller, Outreach Curator and Jennifer Jackson, Exhibit Specialist, National Museum of the Marine Corps.

1:30 p.m.: The Armament of Blackbeard's Queen Anne's Revenge. By Erik Farrell, Archaeological Conservator.

2:45 p.m.: Methods of Research: Making a Book and Video Game about the Collier Revolver. By Ben Nicholson, Professor Emeritus, School of the Art Institute of Chicago.

» SATURDAY, OCT. 8

9 a.m.: Family tradition or provenance? Employing Genealogy Tools to Research Early American Firearms. By Zac Distel, Curator & Program Exhibit Director, Sons of the American Revolution.

10:15 a.m.: Ready, Aim, Tour: Using Dialogic Interpretation for Firearms Programming. By Kirsten Michael, Exclusive Tours Coordinator, Buffalo Bill Center of the West.

12:45 p.m.: Dutch Arms Development in the Age of Industrialization (1815 – 1895). By Mathieu Willemsen,

2 p.m.: I Liked My Armalite: The British Experience of the AR-15 Rifle. By Jonathan Ferguson, Keeper of Firearms and Artillery, Royal Armouries and Matthew Moss, Historian Specialising in Small Arms History, Editor of OvertDefense.com.

REGISTRATION includes lunch all three days.

PRICING: GENERAL REGISTRATION $175
MUSEUM OR OTHER INSTITUTION STAFF $115
(Institution must be provided during registration)*

To register please visit, <https://bit.ly/arsenalsofhistory>

Limited need-based scholarships available for representatives of other non-profit institutions. Please contact Danny Michael at dannym@centerofthewest.org.*

BUFFALO BILL CENTER OF THE WEST

CODY FIREARMS MUSEUM
CODY, WYOMING • CENTEROFTHEWEST.ORG

