

The Buffalo Bill Center of the West has launched a pilot program offering free admission for youth in Park County, Wyoming —for all ages through high school!

The program provides an enjoyable museum experience and learning opportunity for young audiences in the region, free of charge. This program is funded for one year, and one accompanying adult will also receive free admission to chaperone the child or children.

extended into 2023!

park county,
WYO, kids receive

free
Admission

BUFFALO BILL CENTER OF THE WEST

visit centerofthewest.org for information on upcoming events and programs.