IF YOU LOVE CODY, YOU'RE PART OF THE CLUB!

JANUARY 9 @ Buffalo Bill Center of the West

5:30-7:30 PM | Fires of 1988

We're looking back to the Yellowstone Fires of 1988 through the lenses of various people who have witnessed wildfire destruction firsthand. What were the lasting effects on the landscape? What have we learned about the ecology of Yellowstone and wildfire management?

FEBRUARY 13 @ Buffalo Bill Center of the West

5:30 - 7:30 pm | Lock Stock and Local, Guns of the Cody Firearms Museum

Woodruff Curator Danny Michael shares the history of the Cody Firearms Museum's collection and how it came to be in Cody, Wyoming. Special emphasis will be given to firearms with a local connection and new artifacts the museum has recently acquired.

MARCH 13 @ Holiday Inn Cody

5:30-7:30 pm | Dead & Gone in Wyoming: Mysterious Tales of True Crime in the Cowboy State

From notorious outlaws and unsolved murders to haunting legends and mysterious disappearances, Scott Fuller, creator of the popular podcast, "Dead & Gone in Wyoming," presents chilling and enigmatic true crime stories that have shaped the Cowboy State's legacy.

APRIL 10 @ Mineta-Simpson Institute

5:30 - 7:30 pm | Common Ground

Throughout long careers on opposite sides of the political aisle, Mineta and Simpson overcame their political differences and worked together to find common ground. Aura Sunada Newlin, Executive Director of Heart Mountain Wyoming Foundation, celebrates their legacy of empathy, courage, and cooperation in the newly opened Mineta-Simpson Institute.
